Area grididders play key roles for South All-Stars

By Steve Page

WAYNE TOWNSHIP – The Ben Davis football stadium was chock full of the state's best players, all of whom had just graduated from their respective high schools. They were ready to race up and down the field with all sorts of intricate plays.

But that was only the appearance of Friday night's 56th Annual Murat Shrine North-South Football All-Star Classic.

Just listen to Jacob Newlin. "We only have three (practice) days to prepare," noted the 6-4, 285-pound offensive lineman from Center Grove. "It's all mental. Get the ball and run it; throw a few passes."

And couple that with a stout defense in the Indiana Football Coaches Association event.

"I knew we possessed a good group of guys," said Quinn Warweg, a 6-0, 173-pound cornerback from Whiteland who will play at Butler. He had three solo tackles. "We practiced really hard."

They did indeed.

That combination, plus the MVP effort of Mount Vernon (Fortville) quarterback Gehrig Slunaker, enabled the South All-Stars to post a 14-0 victory on a damp, but warm night.

Despite overcast skies and a few light rain showers, the contest drew 6,738 fans, according to game stats. They saw all the players, as each possession brought new units on both offense and defense.

"We knew it was possible," Warweg said of the shutout. "I'm happy it came to fruition. It was against good performers. Everybody did their part."

Indianapolis' southside was well represented, including Newlin, Warweg, Center Grove defensive tackle Owen Green, Daniel Adams, an inside linebacker from Whiteland and Lutheran teammates Jake Pasch, an outside linebacker and strong

SOUTHSIDE ROADWORK

MADISON NOW OPEN!

Bridge crews restored traffic across the brand-new Madison Avenue bridge over I-465 this past weekend to one lane in each direction. All four lanes of Madison Avenue and the sidewalks along the bridge are expected to fully open later this week.

Madison Avenue is the third of five I-465 overpasses the I-69 Finish Line project has replaced. The new bridges will provide safe travels for many decades to come and make room for future I-465 lanes on the southwest side of Indianapolis.

Carson Avenue, just west of I-65, is the fifth I-465 overpass to be replaced. It's expected to close on Sunday, July 24 for about six months. The detour follows Keystone Avenue and Thompson Road.

I-465 traffic should continue to expect nighttime lane closures and intermittent traffic stoppages near the bridgework. Crews expect to close the right lane of I-465 eastbound on Wednesday night near the Carson Avenue overpass and the exit to I-65 southbound.

The Mann Road and Thompson Road intersection and the on-ramp to I-465 eastbound have reopened. Road improvements were completed during a long weekend's worth of work.

Cranes are lifting large bridge beams into place this week for the future I-69 northbound bridge over County Line Road.

Personal Recollections

Peaches and Jake

About a year ago, Lyn and I received a package in the mail. I was very intrigued with this delivery because it wasn't from Amazon or any other on-line ordering company. When I noticed the return address, I was excited to get in the house and open it.

Our package was from our good friend, Paula Bailey. She now lives in Vero Beach, Florida. I've known Paula for many years. She is also a graduate of Southport High School. She was a few years behind me in school. Paula Krug was a freshman the year I graduated.

Paula worked over 30 years at Eli Lilly. Paula was married to George Bailey, who also worked at Lilly's. After their retirement, they packed up and moved to Vero beach, Florida. They had a motorhome and enjoyed traveling with their dogs. I'm sure that Paula and George Bailey had a "Wonderful Life".

After George passed away in 2003, Paula purchased a cottage in Maine; and this is where she and her dogs spend their summers. She still has a motorhome and she and her rescue dogs enjoy traveling in it.

I was really surprised when I got in the house and opened the package. I found a book titled, Peaches and the 19 Cobras. The book showed the author's name on the bottom of the cover. This book was written by Paula Bailey.

I quickly sat down in my favorite chair and read the entire book. The story is told by Paula's dog, Peaches. It is a great book for all ages of people. There are also pictures on most of the pages. This book puts a bit of humor into a very serious time in our lives.

Peaches, a 7-year-old rescue dog and Jake who is now 10 tells how their family coped with the lifestyle adjustments they needed to make it through the pandemic. It gives us an idea of what our animals were thinking when we all were wearing masks and staying home all the time.

According to Peaches, she and Jake were very confused at the start of the pandemic. They would hear Paula, all of her friends and neighbors and many folks on television talking about all the ways people had to change their lives to stay safe from Corona 19.

Peaches and Jake had a bit of trouble keeping up with all the pandemic guidelines and rules. They even got the official name of the pandemic a bit confused in their minds. Hence, the title of the book, "Peaches and the 19 Cobras".

Jake went on full guard dog lookout for any crazy snakes that might try to invade their property. Peaches tells lots of stories in the book. I later sat down with Simon and read him the entire book. We both totally enjoyed the book and our time together.

Last week, we received another package from Paula. I was very surprised to discover that Paula had published two more books. The final words on the last page of the first book were, "To be continued". One of the books is that continuation.

The third book is also about Peaches and Jake. The book and story tell about them celebrating Christmas. Peaches and Jake talking about celebrating Christmas and how they enjoy their presents.

I read them both quickly and then looked up Paula's telephone number and gave her a call. We had a nice conversation. Paula wasn't aware that we had lost Stuart. I also explained that our new rescue dog, Simon, was sitting on my lap at the time and I was going to read all three books to him later that day.

Paula had some back surgery a few months ago and was dealing with that recovery process. She didn't travel to Maine this summer. She did tell me that she has a plan to be in Indianapolis next summer. We are sure looking forward to that.

I mailed Paula a copy of Stuart's last article, a few pictures of Simon and a copy of a DVD telling about Longacre Pool and Park.

DOUG GREIG INDUCTED INTO SPEEDROME HALL OF FAME

(SUBMITTED PHOTOS)

Third-generation driver Doug Greig is the 2022 inductee into the Indianapolis Speedrome Hall of Fame. The Southport High School alum was honored July 9 on a night that featured the Mike Greig Sr. Memorial 75-lap Figure-8 that honors his father and the track's traditional fireworks display. Greig's career spans 40 years as a driver, car builder, mechanic, mentor and champion. He is shown in Speedrome file photos with a Late Model Figure-8 car, left, and a Legends Car. He has earned 15 various Speedrome season championships among five different divisions, including four Late Model, six Legends Cars and two World Figure-8 three-hour endurance championships, the first to complete 10,000 career laps and has totalled 11,054 career laps in that event. Greig also holds the national Legends Cars career record of 62 feature wins. He is mentoring daughter/fourth-generation driver Kimmie Greig, the track's winningest Junior Faskart driver and feature wins in front-wheel drive divisions. Doug continues to race the familiar No. 33 Late Model in Speedrome Figure-8 events.

Green, who will join Newlin at the University of Indianapolis after making one solo tackle and assisting on another. "We thought we were not allowed to blitz, but they started blitzing, so we did, too. Luckily, we had a better offensive line than them."

Following the game, Green and Adams posed for pictures, both smiling, and for good reason.

"We were undefeated," Green said, including their recent efforts at Center Grove. "Twenty-nine and zero the last two seasons."

The North started the game by driving steadily downfield until fumbling the ball away at the South 27. North players limited the South to 202 passing yards, 104 rushing yards, and just 4 of 14 third-down conversions.

"It was a little scary at first, but once the nerves calmed down, we were good to go," said the 5-11, 225-pound Adams, who will play for Lake Forest in the fall. "Everybody was pulling together, doing their jobs. Everybody was making a play."

"Getting the shutout is pretty cool. It's what we worked for all week."

Hawks battle

The effort was all too short for Diallo, headed for Davidson. He had a nice open-field tackle on a wide receiver in the first quarter, but then a few plays later, suffered a game-ending injury. He spent the remainder of the first half with his foot propped up and wrapped in ice.

"I jumped up to celebrate," he said of the game's first turnover. "I don't know if I landed on somebody's foot or what, but my ankle was parallel with the ground. I just wish I could have done more."

Wertz was an obvious standout, given his size: 6-4 and 330 pounds.

He concurred with Newlin.

"We had a really simple playbook," said Wertz, who will play for Muskingum, a liberal arts college in New Concord, Ohio. "That really helped us. They were doing too much on the other side. We kept it simple. Oh yeah. It's good. It's all good."

Historical Society visits YMCA

The next meeting of the Perry Township / Southport Historical Society will feature the history of the YMCA. The Baxter "Y" has been an important part of our community for nearly 60 years. It's been almost 20 years since a tornado damaged the building as it cut a swath across the area. Louella Quakenbush will be the guest speaker. The meeting will be held at the Baxter YMCA, 7900 Shelby Street, at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, July 26. Come for an enjoyable and informative evening.

HOROSCOPE: It's in the stars!

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You face the possibility of raising your relationship to another level. However, your partner might demand that you make promises you're not sure you're ready for.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) As changes continue, expect things to get a little more hectic at your workplace. An unexpected travel opportunity could open new career prospects.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Confront the person who caused your hurt feelings and demand a full explanation for their actions. You'll not only recover your self-esteem, but you'll also gain the respect of others.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That personal problem in the workplace is compounded by someone's biased interference. Stand your ground, and you'll soon find allies gathering around you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You don't accept disapproval easily. But instead of hiding out in your den to lick your wounded pride, turn the criticism into a valuable lesson for future use.
VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) That former friend you thought you'd cut out of your life is still affecting other relationships. Counter their lies with the truth. Your friends are ready to listen.
LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) What appears to be an unfair situation might simply be the result of a misunderstanding. If you feel something is out of balance, correct it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A stalled relationship won't budge until you make the first move. Your partner offers a surprising explanation about what got it mired down in the first place.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A coworker shares some startling news, but before you can use it to your advantage, make sure it's true. The weekend favors family matters.
CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your usual conservative approach to family situations might not work at this time. Keep an open mind about developments, and you might be pleasantly surprised.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Plans might have to be put on hold because of a family member's problems. Don't hesitate to get involved. Your help could make all the difference.
PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Relationships in the home and in the workplace need your careful attention during this period. Be careful not to allow misunderstandings to create problems.
BORN THIS WEEK: You have a keen, insightful intellect and enjoy debating your views with others who disagree with you. You also love to solve puzzles -- the more challenging, the better.
